GIAQUE'S SON DISCREDITED

BRIDWELL QUOTED AS SAYING complaint had been made. HE WAS INCOMPETENT.

Mathonihah Thomas, member of the board of education, was on the stand at the Bridwell investigation last evening, called by the defense to undergo a little of the grilling he had given George M. Bridwell when he had him under his fands on the strand. H. C. Edwards, counsel for the superintendent of buildings and grounds, was unable at any time to disturb Mr. Thomas' equanimity.

The evidence during the evening developed the fact that T. J. Bridwell had been sent at one time to do the work of Clarence P. Bridwell had a score of witnesses present, but only one or two were heard, and these connected with the board. L. P. Judd was questioned concerning a meeting at which H. W. Nichols, who had received pay twice, and the late Judge H. P. Henders: n were present. Mr. Judd said that Nichols' statement was that he had received pay twice, and the late Judge H. P. Henders: n were present. Mr. Judd said that Nichols' statement was that he had received pay twice, had taken the second check to Bridwell, who told him to get it cashed as it was his (Bridwell's) money. He had done so and handed the money over to Bridwell. Bridwell, Bridwell, Nichols had stated, had asked that the second bill be made out, saying the first was lost.

Mr. Judd was further asked concerning the employment of T. J. Bridwell to the role has chosen.
